GUEST SPEAKER

Lt. Col. (Ret.) Patrick J. Doyle

Lt Col Patrick J. Doyle retired from the Air Force in April 2021 after serving 11 years active duty and 10 in the Air Force Reserve. He currently resides in Morris Township, NJ with his wife, Kim, and two children, Brendan and Reagan.

Lt Col Doyle entered the Air Force in May 2000 as a graduate of the United States Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo., earning a Bachelor of Science in Aeronautical Engineering. He was a WAC student-athlete, member of the Wings of Blue parachute team, and participated in the French Exchange program at l'Ecole de l'Air. He completed Specialized Undergraduate Pilot Training in 2001 and accumulated over 1,500 hours in F-15 aircraft. He served as an Instructor Pilot and held leadership positions from Flight Commander to Executive Officer. Lt Col Doyle participated in contingency deployments to Korea, as well as numerous joint exercises. He is a graduate of Squadron Officer School and Air Command and Staff College, Air University, Maxwell AFB, Ala.

Prior to his retirement, Lt Col Doyle directed the Admissions Liaison Program for the U.S. Air Force Academy in New Jersey.
